

ABK, I'm Just Me

All this time
I spend just writing down
These thoughts that build in my head
I try to get away
But they keep chasing me down
They tell me set them free
So this is how I relieve
By giving everything to you
So you can rid this worse in me
All I am is who you see
All I give is what you believe
I'm just me
I'm just me
I'm just me
I'm just me
Repeat
And understand why these feelings take control over me
Is it just because I'm weak
Or is my mind all that they need
Cuz when I close my eyes
Is when they usually
Try to speak
And when I awake
I just grab my pen
Bcuz that's how I spread my wings
Chorus
Is ur eyes wide open
Do you feel like u can't keep coping
Do you believe
In what you see
All of your words
That have been spoken
Keeps them alive
And always searching
Because they believe
In what they see
Chorus
