

Above Symmetry, Reflections

If I could see it could I believe it
I had the chance but let you fade away
I was blinded and absent-minded
My eyes just saw reflections
Should have foreseen it
Should have believe it
Now you're gone
And time can't heal this pain I'm feeling
Wounds are bleeding
Everywhere I turn I see your face
Your face...
