

Above Symmetry, Remorse

Have you ever looked into the mirror
In faith of finding yourself
Have you ever made a promise
A promise you couldn't keep
I regret and I'm sorry
I'm sorry for the pain I've caused you
Help me find forgiveness
Are you sometimes frightened of tomorrow
Do you fear the truth
Do you dare to stand up for your sins
And feel the wounds deep within
Or are you afraid of the shame
Rise from the fall
Try to capture what you've lost
Angels sing to restore your memory
You gotta rise from the fall
Try to capture what you have lost
Angels sing to restore your memory
You are not alone
