

Above Symmetry, Trails of Clarity

Fallen through a blaze of unconsciousness
Sins undone, I'm forced to confess
I'm losing control of this fatal dream
Streams of clarity far beyond
Minds untouched, now they're gone
It feels like the world is lost
Like paradise is out of reach
I'm travelling a road of sorrow
To me this is real
I'm draining the thoughts of an empty well
Fighting visions of a twisted self
Free fall towards the end
Streams of clarity far beyond
Minds untouched, now they're gone
It feels like the world is lost
Like paradise is out of reach
I'm travelling a road of sorrow
To me this is real
Am I lost
(I am falling towards the end)
In this world
