

Above The Golden State, I Am Loved

I didn't think this could happen to me
I wanted the easy road
I had my parade, but it started to rain
And now it looks out of control
Why do I feel like you're hiding?
Oh, remind me again
I am loved
I am yours
I have someone besides me, I can't deny
I am loved
Sometimes we go to sleep wishing that we could be Different than who we are
Chasing our dreams has taken its toll
We try just a little too hard
And I, I keep beating myself up
Oh, remind me again
I am loved
I am yours
I have someone to find me
Someone to guide me home
I am loved
I'm not alone
I have someone beside me
And I can't deny I am loved
You're not far away
You're not far away
Maybe you're driving out there on the highway
Feels like you're out on your own
Let me remind you that God never left you
He's right there wherever you go
You are loved
You're not alone
You have someone beside you
Someone to guide you home
You are loved
You're not alone
'Cause God is beside you,
And He won't deny you of love
'Cause God is beside you
And He won't deny you of love
