

Abra Moore, All I Want

All I want is you
All I need is you
Liar liar in my bed
Your filling up my pretty, pretty head
You're telling me things that I want to hear
I'm enraptured

Fire in my heart
You're tearing me, you're tearing me, you're tearing me apart
Showing me things that I want to feel
I am captured

This road's got to end soon
See it's taking the better part of me

Fire fire in my heart
It's tearing me, it's tearing me, it's tearing me apart
Telling me things I want to hear
You've got me tellin' it my mind is set a reelin'

I don't need some picture-framed photograph
To save me
When it keeps coming back to this

All I want is you
All I need is you
My heart's a reelin' and I don't know what I'm feelin'

I don't need some picture-framed photograph
To save me
When it keeps coming back to this

All I want is you
All I need is you
Won't you give it to me
Come on give it to me
