

Abra Moore, Throw A Penny

Throw A Penny

Abra Moore

Speak easy when you speak of leaving here

Try not to talk to loud yeah

Take your time when you walk away from here

Try not to take too long yeah

Sometimes this love feels just like a big wheel

It keeps turning, turning down the avenue

Sometimes it goes up sometimes we go down

Sometimes we just dont know what to feel

For our love is only perfect for a very short time

So I'll, I'll let you go

And I'll, I'll watch you fall

And I'll, I'll push you deeper than

You've ever been pushed before

For our love is only perfect for a very short time

Said our love it's only perfect

So come on throw another penny down the river bed

We'll see if it comes out shining and bright

Throw another penny down the river bed

We'll see if it comes out shining and bright

And I'll, I'll let you go

And I'll, I'll watch you fall

And I'll, I'll push you deeper than

you've ever been pushed before

Throw another penny down the river bed

See if it comes out shining

You've ever been pushed before

Throw another penny down the river bed

See if it comes out shining (fades)
