

Abreal, Ain't Gonna Go

solo 1

life would be to hard to live without you just letting you know i would never leave if it would hurt you so when you have a chance don't think would she want me to do this don't think twice
just let me know
and don't go

chorus

i'd miss you so
please don't go
your loved your cared for
and everyone is on your side
would she want me to do this
don't think twice
just let me know
that you said
i an't gonna go

solo 2

i'd hope and pray for you everyday and wished you cahnged your mind okey

and when the time will come and i will find

you loved me all along
i wish it were true
everyday and everynight you were always on my mind and your spirit will set free

i'd miss you so
would she want me to do this
don't think twice
just let me know

solo1

you were in a wreek
a comma for 3 days
asked you a question and please don't go
and you said one thing that second more
i an't gonna go
