

Absu, Bestial Invasion

Early morning, mankind sleeps theres a roaring in the air inpenetrable fog Thunder rolls and lightning strikes hell storms, rush over the earth
but theres no rain
Hell storms, rush over the earth
Bestial Invasion
Fog cleared up, people scream they wont believe that the evil takes control Hell storms, rush over the earth
Bestial Invasion
Your time is out, obsession spreads death rules, satans law is in command Jesus Christ exists no longer You better pray to the new lord
'cause hes almighty obey him
