Absurd Minds, Dreary

A lifeforce that had the ability to create universes Is now caught in a bodily form Feeling so weary
Cause everything's so dreary
Lieing on the ground
Lethargy all around
Thrilling moments
Nowhere to be found
Feeling so weary
Cause everything's so dreary

I need a drug that pushes me up I'm pressed for time No longer I will wait I need it now or it's to late I need a solution for my craving A solution for my lust Of adrenalin I wanna live So what's the price?

Long ago I had the ability to create universes Is now caught in a bodily form Feeling so weary Cause everything's so dreary I'm trapped in my body I want to break out I'm trapped in my body I wanna be free
