

Absynthe Minded, Singalong Song

Are you familiar with the liars
They got the cash, fistful of it
Ambition is a faithful fight with
The counterfeit since the beginning
It's funny how some people forget
They make you wanna buy all this shit
They reckon you won't throw a fit
As long as you think you need it

I am alarmed can't get rid of it
Not in my line I'm just passing my time
I feel ashamed not pushing limits
This is alright I'll let them all behind

They're tryin' to outnumber us bit by bit
I'm stuck in this baby I'm giving in quick
The dream is what I'll never become
The question does me so much harm

I used to be stubborn fierce and swift
Now I'm complaining "You! Give me my bread!"
The growin' up part ain't the hardest bit
It's the money that's messin' with the kid
It's the money that's messin' with the kid
It's the money that's messin' with the kid
It's the money that's messin' with the kid
It's the money that's messin' with the kid

I am alarmed can't get rid of it
Not in my line I'm just passing my time
I feel ashamed not pushing limits
This is alright I'll let them all behind

I am just passin' my time
And I'll let them all behind
I am just passin' my time
And I'll let them all behind
