

Acceptance, Rerun (Live)

Thought you saw this last time. It's a rerun
But this time it's changed you. You said you never watched it
It's your free time

Image past. Forget your words you live it every day
Dead end stare. Eyes transfixed
Focused on destruction of yourself

This could be the last time I wait for you
Take a while
Things only you can change
As you relive
As you relive
Stay a while
Things only you can change
As you revive
As you revive yourself
