

Acceptance, Too Late

Falling to the ground, nothings there,
Take a look around, it's only for,

Too late (too late), to far away (far away),
And I know your lost (I know your lost),
Too late (to late), to far away (to far away),
And I know your lost,

Grabbing for the air, time stands still,
Try and still compare, with death again,

Too late (too late), to far away (far away),
And I know your lost (I know your lost),
Too late (to late), to far away (far away),
And I know your lost, lost,

Your lost, (so far away),
Your lost, (so far away),
Your lost, (so far away),
Your lost.
