

Accessory, Desire

I hear your words - so blank and light
Violently committed
And usually accompanied
By a solid smile
Don't do it - do it - I don't know
Hit me if you dare
I'm waiting for your blow
Or handle me with care

Play this confused game
Reduce me to a nut
Go as far as you can
I wouldn't stop

I see your teeth - so white and clean
Under compulsion
Little spots in between
Show the perfect fraud
Don't do it - do it - I don't know
Turn over as you like
I'm waiting for your blow
Since I let you in my life
