Portraits of a miracle
Portraits torn in stripes
White sparks surround the fly
When it's longing for stars

Laughter in the trees
Laughter lift the curtain
Spiders haunt the fly
When it's singing its song

Cheer up! Said the fly
Turn your eyes on the sky
Just keep your head clean
And follow your own dream

Mirrors show the inversion
Mirrors broken in pieces
Pieces stare at the fly
When it's passing by

Screams disrupt the peace
Screams of broken wings
Cheer up! Howls the fly
When it moves its legs
