Accessory, Unfinished

Purple bottles blow Fragrance in the air Instructions promise feeling But the doll doesn't care

Gendered deliveries Take money for some happiness Officials offer intimacy For the wasteful mass

The papers are blank And the bottom turns up The river flows back Into the water lab

Take your borrowed shit And leave me alone Take your leveled life And sell it someone else

An audition has to end Their puppets are tired No further commands to pretend That the third is inspired

All thoughts of actors for rent Useless for the higher No opinion to defend No excuses for the liar
