

Accidental Superhero, Miss You Like Crazy

i heard you on the radio i don't know what to say to you so i thought i'd come up to the bedroom but i tripped on your straw broom failed to circumvent the event that made it so stayed up for the video the one on our favorite show dropped your hands as the lights went down and the air left my lips without a sound

i miss you like crazy
don't want to be alone anymore
don't want to be alone

i thought of nothing else but you and it looks like he did too saw the trap of the cult of that that makes me do what i don't want to and now it's up to you whatever you want to do saw you hands pretend to despair and your mouth looked like it cared for something new

make up your mind
now it's up to you
