

Ace Enders And A Million Different People, I Told

I fly out to see you
But nobody's home
So I drive out to meet you
Now everyone knows

And they call me out,
Screaming, "I told you so!"
And I'm falling down
Knowing I lost my love again

I ask the neighbors if they've seen you
They say that you're gone
You left your car in the driveway
And your coat by the door

And they call me out,
Screaming, "I told you so!"
And I'm falling down
Knowing I lost my love again

La da da da....

And they call me out,
Screaming, "I told you so!"
And I'm falling down
Knowing I lost my love

And they call me out,
Screaming, "I told you so!"
And I'm falling down
Knowing I lost my love again

I say that I need you
Now everyone knows
