

Ace Enders And A Million Different People, Why I

Why do you run?
Why do you hide?
And where have you gone?
Where have you gone?
Where have you gone?

It's 5 am
And you stumble out of bed
But you leave your mind in it for a little while

You listen to the clock
It's ticking up a stor.
It tells you time's been running out
The door, the cracks, the sides
You have to find it, you have to find it

So why do you run?
Why do you hide?
And where have you gone?
Where have you gone?
Where have you gone?

12 to 1
Say your life's lost without love
So you find someone to hold for a little while

But still you run
I know you're searching for a ghost inside your head
You're ripping up the floors, the walls, and doors
You have to find it, you have to find it

So why do you run?
Why do you hide?
And where have you gone?
Where have you gone?
Where have you gone?

Why do you run?
Why do you hide?
And where have you gone?
Where have you gone?
Where have you gone?
I've looked for so long

But still you run
I know you're searching for a ghost inside your head
You're ripping up the floors, the walls, and doors
You have to find it

You're running so long,
So long, so long...

So why do you run?
Why do you hide?
And where have you gone?
Where have you gone?
Where have you gone?

Why do you run?
Why do you hide?
And where have you gone?
Where have you gone?
Where have you gone?

You're running so long,
So long...

Where have you gone?
