

Ace Enders, Over This

Let's just say, that I am over this
I am done with it, and moving on.
So let's pretend, that it was perfect.
And it was worth it, and all is good.
But it's hard times, to make it seem alright.
Oh please because,
We need some saving
To help prevent our hearts from breaking
So we can say that all of this was worth it.
So let's just say, that I deserved it.
I worked and earned it, would that be wrong?
We're moving on, never regret it
And please don't expect it
'Cause we're on our own.
But it's hard times, to make it seem alright.
Oh please because,
We need some saving
To help prevent our hearts from breaking
So we can say that all of this was worth it.
We need some saving
To help prevent our hearts from breaking
So we can say that all of this was worth it.
We need some saving
To help prevent our hearts from breaking
So we can say that all of this was worth it.
