

Ace Enders, Ready Ankles

Oh I'm re-re-ready for my heart attack
Oh I'm oh-oh-over everyone for that
So I smile, smile, smile for the fact that I am here
Oh I'm lo-lo-losing for one last time
When I take-take notice of a happy time
Well I found my way out of this big parade
So over and over I glance by your shoulder
Hoping to see what it's like
My toes are cold, ankles are sweaty
And up my legs, knees are heavy
My hips were shaking, my back was breaking
In love
La la la la la la la...
I'm re-re-ready for another round
And I'm hope-hope-hoping this one puts me down
'Cause I'm clean like linen,
But I'm foggy in the night
I woke, woke, woke on a pile of grass (?)
I'm slow, slow, slow from the week I've had
I need your smile, your tears, your every-thing

So over and over I glanced by your shoulder
Hoping to see what it's like
My toes are cold, ankles are sweaty
Go up my leg, knees are heavy
My hips were shaking, my back was breaking
In love
La la la la la la la...
You know you were right
You know you were right
YOU KNOW YOU WERE RIGHT
My toes were cold, ankles were sweaty
And up my legs, knees were heavy
My hip was shaking, my back was breaking
In love
In love
In love
In love
In love.
