

Ace Enders, Sweeter Light

As I go down I've been beat and broken down
With my hands held out I'm just screaming for you now
I said oh you're my sweeter light
As the moments pass me by
I just look my hands are tied
Cause I'm losing my own fight
Again and again
As I wrote this out I really start to need you now
With my hands held out I'm begging please I need you now
I said oh you're my sweeter light
But you know
As the moments pass me by
I just look my hands are tied
'Cause I'm losing my own fight
Again and again
