Stop lookin' down and look up and proud of it Don't be a fool and keep takin' all that shit It's time you saw that it's wrong to be pushed aside Stand up and fight and you soon will realize CHORUS:

You gotta separate the men from the boys If you hesitate, you might lose a lot of joys So grab a hold of your girl, and give her everything you can If you can penetrate, she'll make you feel like a man Always remember your strength comes from deep inside The world's a joke, so beware, you could lose your mind! So don't be fooled by the lies lots of people say Trust in yourself and you surely will find a way Now Listen!

CHORUS:

You gotta separate the good from the bad If you hesitate. you might end up feelin' sad So grab a hold of your girl, squeexe her tight and don't let go I you can penetrate, by then you'll surely know
