

Ace Troubleshooter, Estella

Estella steps in silence
Her every movement caught
Encased in gilded memory
Here it comes again
Anticipation racing through me
Thrilling with emotion
You still me

Estella, Estella you
You're missing all you see
I'm missing you
Estella, Estella you dream
You're missing all you see
I'm missing you

Estella moves in shadows
Her every whisper caught
Exhale and draw it in again
When everything gets lost
In the twilight, I'll be waiting
You keep me guessing
You enigma, you dream

Estella, Estella you
You're missing all you see
I'm missing you
Estella, Estella you dream
You're missing all you see
I'm missing you, my sweet

Wide-eyed, weak-kneed
Stare me through my soul
You pierce me
I know we need
Nothing short of holding nothing back
Come down to me
And I'll show you
You mean worlds to me
You do

Fare thee well, my love
The last time in a whisper
She whispered back
Fare thee well, my love
Believe me when I say
I love you madly, deeply, always

Estella, Estella you
You're missing all you see
I'm missing you
Estella, Estella you dream
You're missing all you see
I'm missing you
