

Ace Troubleshooter, Misery

Get me out of this misery
I fall down to You on my knees
Get me out of this misery I pray You, God

Ow, Lord! Why do You stretch me?
No no no no
Whoa, Lord! It hurts so bad
What now? I'm glad?!

Indecision confounds me
I need Your eyes, look through them to see
Get me out of this misery I pray You, God

Wow Lord, I see it so clearly now
Wow Lord, You really come through to me, and how!

Out of that stinking misery
New eyes really help me to see
Thank You Lord so dearly
I love You, God
