

Ace Troubleshooter, Only You

Fall down on my face, I trip toward my retreat
Seeking Your embrace
Blindly I find that I need only You
More, more, more for me, me, me
Bought into their mentality
Eyes opened wide
I'll be transformed by the renewing of my mind over time

Discomfort comes clearly when I lose my gaze
Brought back into righteousness suddenly

Take a dip in the pool of grace
A refreshing touch that lifts my face
Then rest easy in Your arms
Laugh in the face of any harm

Sit and watch the world go by
Wonder at the reason why
And how they can ignore the One
Who gives us life when all is said and done
