

Ace Young, You Redeem Me

When the walls are closing in on me
And I can't find my way out
When I've seen as much as I can see
I just turn my eyes to you and I know that I'll get through it
And when I'm hanging by a thread
And when I'm sure I've reached the end
I reach for you

You redeem me
When I lose faith when I lose ground
When everything all comes crashing down
You raise me up you lift me up you give me love
You redeem me
When I'm out standing on the ledge
You pull me right back, back from the edge
You take me in with just a look with just a touch
You redeem me with your love

When it seems this life has stole my soul
You're there to bring it back
When the hurt holds on and won't let go
And it's just too much to take I know you'll be there to save me
And when I'm sinking like a stone
Thinking I'm in this all alone
I reach for you

You redeem me
When I lose faith when I lose ground
When everything all comes crashing down
You raise me up you lift me up you give me love
You redeem me
When I'm out standing on the ledge
You pull me right back, back from the edge
You take me in with just a look with just a touch
You redeem me with your love

I lose track and you bring me back around
Without you there's no way I'd be standing here right now
You look in my eyes you set me free
You redeem me

You redeem me
When I lose faith when I lose ground
When everything all comes crashing down
You raise me up you lift me up you give me love
You redeem me
When I'm out standing on the ledge
You pull me right back, back from the edge
You take me in with just a look with just a touch
You redeem me with your love
