

Aceyalone, B - Boy Kingdom

Greetings

Ok I'll make this short

We in the house

We got mikah 9 abstract rude peace

Vic hop fat jack and myself aceyalone

We come for the glory of the b-boy kingdom

Bring them laughter after which bring them tears

I seen it comin' and knew it was a plot

Legislation had a plan to kill hip hop

I got wind from a snitch I kept in contact w/this

Bitch ass judge who was paid off

Soon after that he got laid off

I'm lettin' niggas know you tryin' to stop a muthafka's flow

Hold your black stallions and your black sheeps

Black clan aided a nigga and got heat

We met up on stepney and market sparked it

Mapped out the target

We gon' take out their number one sergeant

Young and strong we bailed up on their front lawn

To kill the enemy

Remember me

Well if you remember me you'll remember

I'm the one who broke into the pentagon took founs planted bombs

Now I possess the blueprint

I counter the message you sent

No longer will you slander and tamper w/our music

Copies of the document we're xeroxed

The ghetto took offense in defense of hip hop

Shot down rolled 'em up loc'ed up bailed out

Saved the day

Then into thin air I fade away

Scorpion

We come for the glory of the b-boy kingdom

Bring them laughter after which bring them tears

The story had never been told until now

As the glory of the kingdom come comes down

Disguised as a janitor the washman

I swept and mopped the floors

Better yet I was a spook behind the door

W/a perfect view from the bannister

Feeling like lee harvey

'cept I got a hundred million years in me

First thing I did was aim

Lock him in my scope

Squeeze

Bust his melon open now I'm pleased

In the name of mc's

Already passed the time that they allotted me

The housekeeper spotted me

It was either her or me

Click clack

She says I will not say what I see

But I never could have trusted her so I busted her in her chest

Then laughed

Then headed for the elevator shaft

But it was too late the jig was up

There was pigs all in the building

So I tried to escape to the fire escape from homicide

Yeah I killed him
Hangin' from the third story ladder
I dropped and I felt my ankle shatter
No time to lose juice from my bladder
My mission was completed and that was all that mattered
The van was parked a hundred yards from the scene of the crime
But it was hard to run w/a broken foot
Just like I thought they blasted
I took one to the gut
I was laying there thinkin' about death
Just watchin' my blood spill out
Just then the van pulls up and I jump in
And then we pull out (? lickin'?) shouts for the glory

We come for the glory of the b-boy kingdom
Bring them laughter after which bring them tears

I walk in like a normal black
Gun peckin' jaw snatching
Slide
They like the way I glide
To the back break out my backpack and stack my shit up
Ah it's bulging now
Looked around heard a gun shot
Pow
I looked down I whipped out my shit
Unloaded my clip
Jetting by the count I slipped
Tripped out
Landed on my hip crawled out
I hit a tuck and roll up and out
Into a flip and boned out now I'm zonin'
I'm nine glocks and seven 380's richer
I'm fit to blow the foundation off this beyotch up
Synchronized for the race
I push the button
Nuke the place
Timed myself dashin to the ride
I hops inside
Keys already in the ignition
I cranks it slaps it in drive
Fizorty-fizive seconds til dizamage
Ride b-boy
Kingdom

We come for the glory of the b-boy kingdom
Bring them laughter after which bring them tears

We come for the glory of the b-boy kingdom
Bring them laughter after which bring them tears
