

Aching Beauty, Lost

Turning around, head in a mess,
Wanderer feeling alone
Wrong way to fight back my distress,
I sit and wait, abandoned

I don't even know whom I should tell,
The turn my life has taken
I've come to a sad conclusion,
That my loss has just begun

And I try to find my way - wanderer feeling alone
And I try to get away - this time I think I'm lost

Lost for a while, for a day
Wanderer for a life, forever
Leaving to seek in a maze,
This time I think I'm lost
