

Acid Android, Chill

all around the useless walls rows of warped perverted faces darkness smears my eyes and i drop down down to the ground sadness will it last or fade?
hint of light i hoped today hope was maybe never not for me my enemy
what you said
it's too late
sailed away
pain in vain
in vain
what you said
ineffective
it's too late
so it's useless
sailed away
devastating
pain in vain
violate dissect of me
make me in dilute... confuses me out of reach the cloud once grasped though it seems so close for me to reach violate dissect on me
make me in a state of frantic agony out of hand the rope once grasped though it seemed so close but wrong i am to be frozen i'm standing alone times goes on and on
what you said
it's too late
sailed away
pain in vain
in vain
what you said
ineffective
it's too late
so it's useless
sailed away
devastating
though it seemed so close right there in front of me
