

Acid Death, Liquid Heaven

Red eyes I see
Watching carefully my face
Smiling with fury and pain

These eyes are mine
Reminding the time
When mind and body decay
I laugh as I die shivering with ecstasy

My body lays pale
At the corner of the room
The syringe piercing my vain
And oh these eyes are still watching

Bloody is my nose
Thrashing is my heart
I no longer care, I fly

I scream as I die-terrors beyond belief
