

Across Five Aprils, Bite The Bullet

I'm lifted by your words.

They mean so much.

It's been so long since I've smiled.

You bring me new life.

Is this a dream?

If so I don't want to ever wake.

Let me sleep forever.

Embrace this moment, it's too good to last for long.

Although I wish it could.

Don't leave me now, it's too hard, to stand without you
