

Across Five Aprils, Saving Seats

I remember our favorite times
Walking around hands locked watching city lights warm up
Talking of where we'd be this time next year
These memories still remain my favorite
My favorite to forget

Thanks for calling thanks a lot for calling me just to save your spot

I remember your favorite lines
Saying you need some space then I should have let you go
But I was to in love with you to leave
You were to in love with having someone
Someone you could form to fit your needs
That's why you're

Walking away but saving seats just in case you change your mind and stay

I guess this time you've crossed the line
Cause I can't feel my heart beat
Next time I hope you see the sign
Cause it reads no re-entry

Walking away but saving seats just in case you change your mind and stay

Stay away from me
Your job is done here I'm hurt enough already
Stay away from me
I can never be what you need

Stay away from me
You know I'll miss you but this is not how love's supposed to be
Stay away from me
I can never be what you need
