

Across The Border, Moving

(Out of the dreams)
(open your smorid eyes)
out of your bed
put your feet back on the ground (curn the way)
let the sunshine in your heart open the door
and out into the world

"[Refrain:]"
Into, into the world
you wanna change (then here we are)
now do the things
you dream about
(it's not that far)

Start with a smile
take your hands
out of your pocket
colour your face
throw that black coat in the bin never give up
Rome wasn't built in one day face that wind
and back into the world

"[Refrain]"

move your ass
move up your ass
move your ass
move up your ass
move your ass
move up your ass
move your ass
move up your ass
move your ass
move up your ass
move your ass
move up your ass

"[Refrain]"
