

Across The Border, This Guardian Angel

Shining eyes, a heavenly voice, said: "I like your songs. I like your kind.
I am your shield and I'll make you famous!"
And daydreams made the fool so blind

And then this...

This guardian angel has bought a cloud of gold
this guardian angel bags all our crop alone
this guardian angel, I guess has sold our soul

Excuse me, Sir, here's my termination, I'm famished and my purse is empty
he laughed at me: "you will go nowhere.
you've signed with your blood, you'll stay forever with me!"

And then this...

This guardian angel has bought a cloud of gold
this guardian angel bags all our crop alone
this guardian angel, I guess has sold our soul
