

Action Item, Dress For The Weather

You've got this thundercloud around you,
And I'm waiting for the storm.
I brought my boots, my coat, my umbrella
And I'm just trying to keep you warm.
I made a list of things I've always said,
But never meant.
Let me take
You to your bed
So I can erase them from your head.
Get home faster, this
Get home faster, this
Is a disaster.
I should know better than dress for the weather.
Call me
Crazy, I think you're amazing.
This is the part where we get a little closer.
Casey, I know you think that I'm rarely worth your time.
But baby, would
You be willing to change your mind?
And I pick myself up and dust myself off
Before I get a chance to speak.
If you have the time, just give a chance.
I'd love to change your mind about me.
