

Action Reaction, Can You Hear The Sun?

Hey, this is the summer
This is the way we all become
And hey, watch out boys
This is where we started from last time
Six holes in the ground
Fall on my knees
I swear I know nothing
(Swear I know nothing)
(Swear I know nothing)
And every time that you break
I'd been faking for miles of the show
Hey, this is the summer
We'll watch the sun and the earth collide
At fifteen million heartbreaks a season
I won't be leaving soon
Fall on my knees
I swear I know nothing
(Swear I know nothing)
(Swear I know nothing)
And every time that you break
I'd been faking for miles of the show

Do you hear the sun ringing?
'Cause I hear the sun ringing out
Do you hear the sun ringing?
'Cause I hear the sun ringing out
Do you hear the sun?
Fall on my knees
I swear I know nothing
(Swear I know nothing)
(Swear I know nothing)
And every time that you break
I'd been faking for miles of the show
I fall on my knees
I swear I know nothing
(Swear I know nothing)
(Swear I know nothing)
And every time that you break
I'd been faking for miles of the show
