

Acumen Nation, Anchorite

i'm on the wayside and i'm made to feel ugly and i'm already lonely and i'm made to feel like an anchorite god's on my backside and i'm already over it but it's like an addiction and i'm made to feel like an anchorite god makes me horny, but sex is so guilty so i think i'll adorn me with lashes and razors come feel the anger, come feel the anger
come feel the anger, come feel the anger!

and i'm already lonely and i'm made to feel like an anchorite
but it's like an addiction and i'm made to feel like an anchorite
so i think i'll adorn me with lashes and razors
come feel the anger, come feel the anger!

so i think i'll adorn me with lashes and razors
god makes me horny, god makes me horny
god makes me horny, god makes me horny!
