

Acumen Nation, If You Were

and just like you said, i'm alone and i'm a child so would you let me hold your heart baby's deepest need lies in your attention i could never touch that part is there anything of me you want because i could give you everything but if your heart is cut out i'll give you.. nothing and just like you said, i'm a fool, and a creep, and a scam but won't you let me hold your heart? baby's lying face down in the starlight never got to hold that heart

unconditional.. unconditional.. unconditional.. is what i gave, and what it cost you would never.. understand!
