

Acumen Nation, My Life's Last Breath

radiate some force and post-enlightened attitude see the world for the first time without your eyes take my hand as we walk head-on into the fire total loss of fear will free you from their holy chains

we will -- collapse -- and fail -- no more!
(shell casings are my skin and bones)
we are -- the threat -- of minds -- evolved!
(foregoing all the opium of your god)
we make -- our life's -- last breath -- a shout!
(raising an army anew as if our) very lives depended
on our death to bring about the end of you!
(you...)

my-life's-last-breath!
spent.. to.. silence.. corruption!
it's-so-worth-it!
so.. we.. will.. forever..
SACRIFICE! SACRIFICE! SACRIFICE! ourselves to bring you down!

the hills become alive with hidden shadow fighters drunk on the knowledge that the rapists soon will burn even though to achieve this we must first set fire to ourselves and then we torch it to laughing at your theocracy.. burns forever
in your hell

we will -- collapse -- and fail -- no more!
(shell casings are my skin and bones)
we are -- the threat -- of minds -- evolved!
(foregoing all the opium of your god)
we make -- our life's -- last breath -- a shout!
(raising an army anew as if our) very lives depended
on our death to bring about the end of you!
