

Acumen Nation, Never The Bride

pulse intoxicating and it keeps me awake for miles keeper of the drone i'm just a sucker for an inbred lie if you've played me once then you're certain to keep this fire hands down i am just another loser for life how is it you can look right past me everytime i've wasted my whole life away on your sweet lies gullibility as a quality crown this guy shining shoes for quarters but you place them on my eyes

i should have known that my race was thrown hours before i even gathered up the courage to try to try... to try... to try...

break the mold now...
i. try. i. beg. i beg to differ but i'm just. just your bitch.

hands down i am just another loser
hands down i am just another loser

i've wasted my whole life away on your sweet lies...
