i know you're right you have to be, if you're with me i've seen you pull your pride right out over your head, i've won never pull punches on my ego i caught a vibe trapped a bird right down inside devoured her ashes while her body hummed mutilation, i've got the touch for degradation and undercuts for fun for fun, for fun, for fun
