

Acumen Nation, Ugly On The Inside

maybe you'll find me saying a prayer for you and maybe you'll find me saying a prayer for you
because you know you can't believe what your daddy says what's right for her cuz you know your mama's lying every time she says this hurts him more than you and your beauty and your money will not matter here because you can't buy love and you can't seduce fate
and you can't steal trust and you damn well can't buy me to rip the caster from the mold to see it cracking in the cold to hear it screaming in the fire

your beauty and your money will not matter here because you can't buy love
and you can't buy me
