

Adagio, Next Profundis

Crossing the borders of an enchanted dream
Silver dust falling on my hands
Empty spaces of a new horizon
Frontiers to another land

See the stars come closer
Enlightening your desire
Follow the wisdom of the light

I'm not afraid, take my hand
Show me what's behind the end
Oceans of pureness might stand

Is there any reason to fall
Cross oblivion, meets the afterworld
Mesmerizing sights of unknown angels
Takes me away to the next profundis

As abstract as it can be
I see myself lying in the underworld
Nothing seems real over me
But still I know my shadow's watching me

Kingdom of sleep, deepness of earth
I will let time decide for me
The promised land I will find
When Cronos will steal my mind

Is there any reason to fall
Cross oblivion, meets the afterworld
Mesmerizing sights of unknown angels
Takes me away to the next profundis
