

Adagio, Promises

I've been waiting so long
To see the moon rising by your side
How many days, since you're gone

I've cried so many times
But I've spent so many hours to hide
The tears I had in my eyes

When will I see you again
Give me a last chance to make
Love, with you forever and ever again
I miss you

I can't feel pain anymore
I'm so lost in a world of sorrow
But I will wait the hour
To set your heart on fire

Mountains of ice i will cross
Fountains of gold I will find
To give you gift
As precious as you

In endlessly I will shout
Your name in the silence of night

When will I see you again
Give me a last chance to make Love, with you forever and ever again
I love you

I can't feel pain anymore
I'm so lost in a world of sorrow
But I will wait the hour
To set your heart on fire
