

Adam Ant, Press Darlings

Adam Ant

we are guilty, we are beyond hope we beg to differ, we are a terminal case press darlings, press darlings, press darlings press darlings, press darlings we depress the press, darlings we're on the outside, but we're not looking in we are the vaseline gang, don't play your little games press darlings, press darlings, press darlings
press darlings, press darlings
and if evil be the food of genius there aren't many demons around if passion ends in fashion nick kent / bushell is the best-dressed man in town are we different? - no we are exactly the same there are no boxes for us the ones you love to hate - so read on!
