

Adam Ant, Scorpios

Adam Ant/Marco Pirroni

There's a gang in every town I say that the rules be turned around listen here from one who knows be fearless just like the Scorpios pretty, look young be fearless like the Scorpion
pretty, look young be fearless
like the Scorpion
the Scorpion
the Scorpion
black's the colour watch the claws with nails as sharp as Diana Dors watching us is stopping you from cruising Ugly Avenue pretty, look young be fearless
pretty, look young be fearless
like the Scorpion
the Scorpion
the Scorpion
and if by chance you cling to hate just rest assured it's your mistake hold up your head, you know I'm right the street's the place, tonight's the night the night the night look pretty, look young be fearless like the Scorpion the night look pretty have fun, don't listen when you're told there's none...
