

ADAM, Between Life And Hell

My violent nature's feeding with darkness
Aberration of what am I?
Cutting down all the acid / bitter things I've already done

We deserve to pay with pain
We are diamonds wasted in vain

Life and Hell
Between
Life and Hell

In my mind I am still free
A psycho-active freak
No need psycho-(ana)lization
In my brain all saints I see

We deserve to pay with pain
We are diamonds wasted in vain

Life and Hell
Between
Life and Hell
