Adam Brand, Good Friends

good times are worth more then money anyday thats what i always say good friend are worths more then money in the bank thats whats i always say thats whats i always say got a letter made me lose heart gonna have to make a new start i know whatever happens now good times are worth more then money anyday thats what i always say good friend are worths more then money in the bank thats whats i always say thats whats i always say don't worry friends will chip in what's owed will be forgiven i know whatever happens now worry 'bout tomorrow ain't gonna change a thing today good times are worth more then money anyday thats what i always say good friend are worths more then money in the bank thats whats i always say thats whats i always say

good times are worth more then money anyday thats what i always say good friend are worths more then money in the bank thats whats i always say

good times are worth more then money anyday thats what i always say good friend are worths more then money in the bank thats whats i always say thats whats i always say