

ADAM, Dead Syllables

Everything happens to me it's like an inhuman misery
Lost like humankind
I believed in something that still dies
I feel forced to swap my dreams with a fucking mask
I tried to deny every kind of feeling make me smile.

Everything happens to me it's like an inhuman misery
I've try to call your name but I found only deaf/mute prayers

Chorus

We just use Dead Syllables to speak your name
We just use Dead Syllables to call your name
We just use Dead Syllables to pray your name
We just use Dead Syllables

Everything happens to me it's like an inhuman misery
Wide open wounds to declare my faith
The One who has no name
Keeps calling in my dreams
Dust and dust again to remember who am I?

If you wanna speak with God
You can't wait his fucking phone call

Chorus

We just use Dead Syllables to speak your name
We just use Dead Syllables to call your name
We just use Dead Syllables to pray your name
We just use Dead Syllables
